Hi All,

Just want to give everyone in Building 2 an update on the roof progress.

The roofers completed building 4 this morning and to utilize their time - they took it upon themselves to start on the parking lot side of Building two.

We will not be doing the pool side of the building until the chimney situation has been resolved - (Please keep an eye out for an update on that coming soon.)

With the good weather today - they are confident that they complete this side today.

If you have any questions - let me know.

Thanks & talk soon

Melissa
